

Muharram: hope and tender, and through sermons, breeding for generations

Dr. Shaker Abid Marzooq

Summary

That God is pleased to worship the good ways, and open doors for them the doors of mercy, He got pay very much for it to work as well as easy-ment and the slaves, and to make good and blessing and a great reward in positions and places involved. And seasons of goodness and forgiveness month of Muharram in general, and the day of Ashura, in particular, which has seen historic events require serious recognizable and draw lessons from them for breeding generations.