

Investment of Monetary Endowment

Authentic Study and Future Vision

Prepared by: Dr. Abu Al-Qasim Mohammed Abu Shama Najah

Co-professor, Sharea Section, Sharea and Systems College, Taif University, KSA.

Assistant Professor, Islamic Studies Section, Faculty of Arts, Sohaj University, Egypt

Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds, and prayers and peace be upon the Prophet of Islam, Muhammad - peace be upon him - the mercy envoy to the worlds, and the leader of the nation to light and guidance, and guide people for good.

Endowment is an institution of general benefit, known to Muslims since the emergence of the Islamic state. Endowment has an active role in the process of economic and social development. Among the types of Endowment is the monetary endowment, which has many elements that enable it to play a prominent role in achieving Endowment charity message.

The research revolves around the investment of the monetary endowment by institutionalizing the monetary legally and historically. It also presents the experiences of contemporary monetary endowment, and clarifies the scientific, social and economic objectives to invest the monetary endowment using the inductive method.

The research points out the regulations of investing the monetary endowment by showing some of its methods and examples of contemporary monetary endowment. It uses the analytical approach to these data in order to reach a future vision to know and overcome the challenges that hinder the maximization of utilization and find means to activate investing the monetary endowment.