

CONCLUSIONS

In patients undergoing laparoscopic cholecystectomy:

1. LC can be performed under spinal anaesthesia, whenever indicated, without significant side effects.
2. Intravenous ondansetron (4mg) decreases the incidence of spinal induced hypotension and bradycardia.
3. Premedication with intravenous ondansetron (4mg) decreases the incidence of nausea and vomiting significantly intra and postoperatively.